

Airman Profile CREFED

*I am an Airman on Profile.
I watch all the other warriors.
The clinic has answered my call.*

*I am an Airman on Profile.
My mission is to sit, surf and complain.
I am faithful to my physical limitations,
A tradition of uselessness,
And a legacy of inaction.*

*I am an Airman on Profile;
Guardian of restricted duty and malingering,
My nation's plaque and hemorrhoid;
Its whiner and weakest link,
I defend my on-deployable status with my life.*

*I am an Airman on Profile;
Victim, follower, casualty.
I will always be the Airman behind.
I will always falter.
And I will fail.*

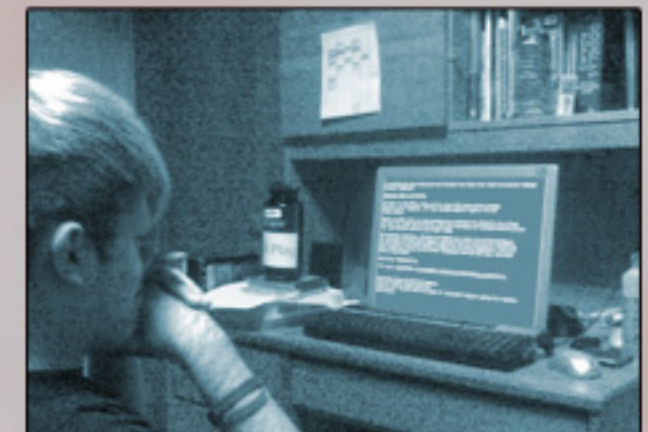

Deployment? Not gonna happen.

Fitness test? Doctor says I can't.

Readiness training? I dont think so.

Hmm. What should I Google next?
